- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -

BOSTON, MASS. (August 19, 2011)—After an almost decade-long hiatus, the Minute Man Dart League (MMDL) is pleased to announce the return of the Witch City Open Dart tournament, previously one of the most popular events for North American and International dart players.

The 2012 Witch City Open will be held at the Courtyard Marriott in Nashua, NH on October 19-21, 2012, and features over $20,000 in prize money. Top players from around the country and the world are invited to challenge players from New England and the MMDL, the largest steel-tip dart league in the world. National ranking points from the American Darts Organization (ADO) will be available for players that compete in the cricket and 501 singles events.

A comprehensive flyer for this event is available from the MMDL website: www.mmdl.org

About Minute Man Dart League (MMDL)

Established in 1974, the Minute Man Dart League (MMDL) has grown from a handful of teams to the Largest Dart League in the World. MMDL currently has over 400 teams from the Boston, North Shore, South Shore and Central regions of the state of Massachusetts.

The Minute Man Dart League brings together people of diverse heritage and backgrounds and provides opportunities for valuable personal and cultural exchange. The league has organized and established its activities in accordance with the principles of open membership, fair play, and respectful competition. The MMDL holds socially beneficial programs such as the MMDL Singles Championship and charitable fund raising activities along with upholding strong ideals of service to community. MMDL is a non-profit organization.
